

Membership

Any community association or individual in the proximity of the boundaries described in Geographic Areas, willing to actively uphold the intent of the GTCC bylaws will be considered by the Board for an appropriate membership.

1. Membership classification:
 - a. Community Association Member - A duly authorized representative of an official active community association.
 - b. Associate Member - Any interested individual resident not actively served by a member association.
 - c. Business Ambassador - Local businesses that are impacted by development in the common GTCC area and wish to support GTCC in their efforts.
2. Candidates for membership will submit a completed official membership form to the Membership Officer to be passed on to the Board for a decision at its next official meeting.
3. Any community association resident, with Board approval, may become active in the work of this Council and, if elected to the Board, vote on matters under consideration by the Board.
